Carabram, Brampton's Multicultural Festival is happening on the weekend of July 10, 11 and 12, 2009. Come on out and "Tour the World" without leaving Brampton for the price of an $8.00 passport. Carabram provides an opportunity for families to experience the rich culture, food, crafts, drink and entertainment of the different countries represented in the festival.

The pavilions are located in cultural centres, schools and recreational centres around Brampton. You can drive yourself or hop on a Brampton Transit bus, for free, and travel to Bulgaria, Canada, Caribbean, Germany, Hawaii, India, Ireland, Italy, Macedonia, Myanmar, Philippines, Poland, Portugal and Ukraine.

Passports can be purchased, in advance, for just $8.00 per adult at many locations throughout Brampton as well as from pavilion volunteers. Children 12 and under are free when accompanied by an adult. Come on out to Carabram, Brampton's premiere Multicultural Festival and enjoy the rich diversity of our great city!
